

Wisconsin Angus Auxiliary Post-Secondary Scholarship

Due December 31, 2011

All applications must be post-marked no later than December 31, 2011

Criterion: Once per lifetime scholarship, available to full-time students enrolled in a post-secondary education curriculum who have completed a minimum of one-year course study. Must be a past or present member of the Wisconsin Junior Angus Association. Scholarship application includes this written form and a personal interview. This application must be typewritten.

Biographical Background

Name:

Address:

City:

State:

Zip Code:

High School:

Graduation date:

College/Technical School:

Dates of Enrollment:

Farm Background

Do you live on a farm:

Number of acres owned:

Rented:

Number of Angus cows on your farm:

Purebred:

Commercial:

Number of Angus marketed annually:

Market:

Breeding stock:

Years as a member of the Wisconsin Junior Angus Association:

Years as a member of the National Junior Angus Association:

Cumulative Post-Secondary Grade Point Average:

Project and Activity Background

List activities and number of years you have participated (including awards):

Do not attach extra pages.

Wisconsin Junior Angus Association:

4-H/FFA:

Trade Organizations:

Community/Employment:

Story

Approximately 300 words, typed, double-spaced, no more than two pages. Include: What you have gained from your involvement with Angus cattle? What past experience has helped you in your current position and why? Name one person who has influenced your life choices and why. What are your ambitions and future plans? (see next page for story placement)

Three Reference Letters

Please include 3 letters of reference; one must be from an Angus producer/breeder.

Interview Process

Contact information for you:

Phone:

Best time to call:

E-mail:

We will schedule an interview with you in person or by phone.

Story

Story Continued

Mail your completed form to:

Mary Kohl
Wisconsin Angus Auxiliary
W11747 Buss Rd
Waterloo, WI 53594

All applications must be post-marked no later than
December 31, 2011

Recipients will be announced at the Wisconsin Angus Association Annual Meeting in February.